

2003 Quarter 3

- Computer Systems
- AMD Catching Up on Speed Performance
- DDR 333 Lifting Desktop Performance
- Compucon Optical Replaced Scroll Mouse as Standard
- Jasper Lifting in System Performance
- Compucon System Technology Advances Update
- Editorial
- Compucon 7-year Itch Without a Glitch
- Radio Network, Kamo High and St John Ambulance Midland Endorse Compucon
- 1st Class Honours for CNZ Research and Development Division
- Quality Assurance System Upgraded for Communication
- Introducing CNZ Partner in Hamilton
- Software
- An Insight into Linux Crossroad in New Zealand
- Windows 2000 Server Discontinued But No Panic
- Windows 2003 Server New Licensing Arrangement
- Latest Versions and Service Packs
- Beware of Windows Background Activities without User Notice
- New Zealand Azul Accounting and Business Operation
- Hardware
- Do Not Plan LAN Upgrade Without Considering GbE!
- Should We Defer Deployment of Wireless LAN (Wi-Fi)?
- An Update on the Great Fujitsu HDD Fiasco
- Fortigate Beating Sonic Wall, Symantec, Check Point etc.
- 3G Cellular Phone Service in Australia Our Neighbour
- Low Cost Storage Network is On The Horizon via iSCSI

Download PDF